history & info

Welcome and we're glad you've made it this far! Brynhyfryd Cottage is pronounced Brin-Hif-Rid.

The welsh have their own language, after all it's a whole separate country to England. The cottage quirky-ness takes effect upstairs where you will notice the cottage is on a slight tilt. This is because these cottages are the last cottages before the valleys begin, we're literally sitting on the bottom slope of a mountain! Take a walk and explore the trails that wilder into the valleys. In rain or sun, the Rhondda Valleys make beautiful walks. The people are super friendly, the valleys are naturally green and I promise you won't hear any police sirens or anything! Get lost in nature and absorb the beauty that surrounds you. This part of the village is the quietest all year round. Your local pub is a 5 min walk Shepherds Arms CF44 6NS.

The town your part of is Cwmaman, which sits perfectly between the valleys and in between Brecon Beacon and the main capital city Cardiff. There is so much to do and probably so little time, so here's a little list of some memorable places you should see
